EmPower Solar Honored with SunPower 2019 “Commercial Regional Dealer of the Year” Award

ISLAND PARK, NY, March 11, 2020 – EmPower Solar, an Island Park-based solar installer, has received the SunPower “Commercial Regional Dealer of the Year” award for its outstanding performance as a SunPower dealer in 2019.

“It’s a great honor to be named SunPower’s 2019 ‘Commercial Regional Dealer of the Year,’ recognized for offering high quality, complete solar solutions alongside superior customer service to businesses in New York City and Long Island,” said David G. Schieren of EmPower Solar. “SunPower is an innovative partner that enables us to deliver reliable solar energy and predictable electricity savings to customers over the life of their solar systems.”

The “Commercial Regional Dealer of the Year” award honors SunPower commercial dealers in select regions of the United States that consistently put customers first, while demonstrating exceptional industry knowledge and leadership.

“EmPower Solar is a strong contributor within our national dealer network, providing localized sales, quality installations industry expertise, and outstanding customer experiences, which aided in the company’s exceptional 2019 performance,” said Norm Taffe, SunPower executive vice president, North America. “We look forward to EmPower Solar’s continued success as a SunPower dealer, helping more businesses realize the rewarding benefits of solar.”

Last year, EmPower Solar more than doubled their commercial portfolio, installing projects for Estee Lauder in Melville, the Long Beach School District, and more.
